Training of these positions is provided to ensure awareness of the officer holders' obligations and responsibilities.

WHEN THE PROTECTIONS APPLY

An individual is eligible for protection as a whistleblower under the Whistleblower Protection Regime in relation to a disclosure of information if:

In certain circumstances, the Whistleblower Protection Regime allows Eligible Whistleblowers to make disclosures to professional journalists and members of parliament². HOW TO MAKE A REPORT

Kutta Mulla Gorinna Special Assistance School is committed to providing a safe, reliable and confidential way of reporting any Disclosable Matters.

A report may be made verbally, including via telephone, or in writing, including by email.

The report should include details of the nature of the allegation(s), the individuals involved, the key facts on which the person making the report has formed the view that a Disclosable Matter exists and involves the individual or individuals named in the report, and the nature and whereabouts of any additional evidence that substantiates the allegation(s).

Reports will be treated confidentially.

- The telephone numbers listed below will be manned only by Eligible Recipients and numbers will not be recorded. Individuals may also send text messages to the telephone numbers listed below. If you wish to remain anonymous, any text messages should be sent from a number that is not known to Kutta Mulla Gorinna Special Assistance School.
- Written reports sent to the email addresses listed below will only be accessible by Eligible Recipients and password protected. If a reporter wishes to remain anonymous, any emails should be sent from an email address that is unknown to Kutta Mulla Gorinna Special Assistance School and which does not identify the reporter.

WHISTLEBLOWER PROTECTION OFFICER

The <<position of staff member>> is appointed as a Whistleblower Protection Officer who safeguards the interests and identity of the eligible whistleblower in terms of this policy and any applicable legislation and any employment policies, as limited by law.

The Whistleblower Protection Officer will have direct, unfettered access to independent financial, legal and operational advisers as required.

The Whistleblower Protection Officer can be contacted by the following means:

The Whistleblower Protection Officer and the Whistleblower Investigations Officer will report to the next reporting line e.g. the Executive School Director. If this line of reporting is affected by the Disclosable Matter, then the matter would be referred to the Executive School Director or chair of the Board.

An assessment will then be made regarding whether the report qualifies for protection under the Whistleblower Protection Regime and if a formal, in-depth investigation is required.

ANONYMOUS REPORTING

Whilst the identity of a reporter will enable the Eligible Recipients and Whistleblower Protection Officer to have ongoing communication with a reporter (which will likely assist in the investigation), reporters may remain anonymous. If a reporter wishes to remain anonymous, they should maintain ongoing two-way communication with the Whistleblower Protection Officer so that the officer can ask follow-up questions or provide feedback without knowing the reporter's identity.

Kutta Mulla Gorinna Special Assistance School will protect the anonymity of a reporter by communicating via an anonymous phone number or email address and allowing the reporter to adopt a pseudonym for the purposes of the disclosure and investigation.

Importantly, disclosures made anonymously will still be protected under the Whistleblower Protection Regime.

FALSE REPORTS

At Kutta Mulla Gorinna Special Assistance School an Eligible Whistleblower will not be disadvantaged by making a report unless the report is knowingly false. If the report is false, this will be taken as a serious matter and the reporter will be subject to disciplinary proceedings as per employment policies.

INVESTIGATION

Kutta Mulla Gorinna Special Assistance School will investigate all matters reported pursuant to this policy as soon as practicable once a report has been received and within 7 days of a report being received.

The purpose of the investigation is to determine whether or not the reported concerns or allegations are substantiated, with a view to rectifying any wrongdoing uncovered to the extent that this is practicable in all the circumstances.

The investigation will be thorough, objective, fair and independent of the reporter and anyone who is implicated in the Disclosable Matter. This includes investigating without bias and any person implicated in the Disclosable Matter will have a right to respond.

The reporter (where possible, having regard to the reporter's request for anonymity) will be kept informed of the outcomes of the investigation arising from their report, subject to considerations of the privacy of anyone who is the subject of the Disclosable Matter and confidentiality requirements. Any reporter who is not an employee must first agree in writing that they will maintain the strict confidentiality of the report and the substance of the report and the investigation before they can be kept informed of the investigation.

Investigation processes will vary depending on the precise nature of the matter being investigated but will generally proceed as follows:

- With the consent of the reporter, the Eligible Recipient will inform the Whistleblower Protection Officer of the report. If the Eligible Recipient determines that this is not appropriate (for example, the information relates to the Whistleblower Protection Officer or the Whistleblower Investigations Officer) they will inform another appropriate, responsible individual e.g. Executive School Director or Chair of the Board
- The Whistleblower Protection Officer will appoint the Whistleblower Investigations Officer or, if the Whistleblower Protection Officer determines that this is not appropriate (for example, the information relates to the Whistleblower Investigations Officer), they will inform another appropriate, responsible individual

- Where appropriate, Kutta Mulla Gorinna Special Assistance School may, in its discretion, provide a reporter with feedback regarding the investigations and outcome
- An investigation will be conducted in a fair and objective manner, as is reasonable and having regard to the nature of the matter reported, the report made and any relevant circumstances
- The enquiries made, and the process of the investigation will be determined by the individual/s conducting the investigation having regard to the nature and substance of the report. This may include the investigation being undertaken internally or the appointment of an independent third party
- If a report is not made anonymously, or the reporter has otherwise provided a means of contact, the Whistleblower Protection Officer will be in contact with the reporter to discuss the investigation process including who may be contacted during the process and other matters relevant to the investigation
- If the report is made anonymously, and the reporter does not provide a means by which they may be contacted, the investigation will be conducted based solely on the content of the report
- Throughout the investigation:
 - All information obtained will be properly secured to prevent unauthorised access and disclosure in accordance with this policy
 - All relevant witnesses will be interviewed, and documents examined
 - The identity of any individuals named or implicated in the reported conduct will be kept confidential
 - Witnesses will be directed not to draw inferences regarding the identity of any individuals involved in any alleged misconduct based on the substance of the questions asked
 - Notes will be made of all discussions, phone calls and interviews

- Without the reporter's consent, Kutta Mulla Gorinna Special Assistance School cannot disclose information that is likely to lead to identification of the reporter as part of its investigation process, unless:
 - the information does not include the reporter's identity
 - Kutta Mulla Gorinna Special Assistance School removes information relating to the reporter's identity or other information that is likely to lead to the identification of the reporter (e.g. name, position, title, other identifying details); or
 - the disclosure is authorised under the Whistleblower Protection Regime (for example, the disclosure is made to ASIC, AHPRA, the AFP or a legal practitioner for the purpose of obtaining legal advice or legal representation in relation to the operation of the Whistleblower Protection Regime)
 - it is reasonably necessary for the investigation of the issues raised in the disclosure.
- If the reporter has provided contact details or means by which they may be contacted, Kutta Mulla Gorinna Special Assistance School will provide the reporter with regular updates. The frequency and timeframe of updates will vary depending on the subject matter of the report
- The Board of Kutta Mulla Gorinna Special Assistance School will ensure that the investigation is completed within a reasonable time depending on the circumstances and within no more than 90 days of the commencement of the investigation, subject to extraordinary circumstances justifying extension beyond this time
- A reporter who makes an anonymous report may choose to remain anonymous while making a report, over the course of the investigation and after the investigation is finalised. Accordingly, a reporter can refuse to answer questions that they feel could reveal their identity at any time
- The investigation process may be subject to some limitations, including that Kutta Mulla Gorinna Special Assistance School may not be able to undertake an investigation if it is not able to identify the reporter; for example, if a report is made anonymously and the reporter has refused to provide, or has not provided, a means of contact for any further questions or follow up which Kutta Mulla Gorinna Special Assistance School may need as part of the investigation
- At the conclusion of the investigation, the Whistleblower Investigations Officer (or other person appointed to conduct the investigation) will prepare a report for the Board of Kutta Mulla Gorinna Special Assistance School which will include:
 - the allegations
 - a statement of all relevant findings of fact and the evidence gathered and upon which conclusions have been based
 - the conclusions reached, including the damage caused, if any, and the impact on Kutta Mulla Gorinna Special Assistance School and any other affected parties
 - recommendations, based on the report's conclusions, to address any wrongdoing identified and any other matters that arose during the investigation.
- The report will be provided to the Board of Kutta Mulla Gorinna Special Assistance School and the reporter (if possible), with any applicable confidentiality stipulations.

ENSURING FAIR TREATMENT OF EMPLOYEES WHO ARE MENTIONED IN REPORTS

To ensure that employees who are mentioned in reports are treated fairly, Kutta Mulla Gorinna Special Assistance School will ensure that the principles of natural justice are adhered to throughout the investigation process whilst maintaining the protection of Eligible Whistleblowers. For example, Kutta Mulla Gorinna Special Assistance School will ensure that employees named in the reports are provided with details of any allegations made against them along with any relevant evidence substantiating those allegations and affording them a right to respond to the allegations.

PROTECTION OF ELIGIBLE WHISTLEBLOWERS

To encourage reporting, Kutta Mulla Gorinna Special Assistance School is committed to ensuring the confidentiality of all matters raised under this policy and the protection and fair treatment of those who make a report and those named or implicated in a report during the investigation process.

Eligible Whistleblowers will be protected as follows:

Protection against detrimental treatment

Kutta Mulla Gorinna Special Assistance School will not tolerate or permit a person within Kutta Mulla Gorinna Special Assistance School to:

 - the belief or suspicion is the reason, or part of the reason, for the conduct

Detrimental treatment includes dismissal, demotion, harassment, discrimination, bullying, disciplinary action, threats, bias or other unfavourable treatment connected with making a report under this policy. Detrimental treatment does not include things like genuine performance management or the genuine exercise of legal rights against a person.

If a reporter is subjected to detrimental treatment as a result of making a report under this policy, they should immediately inform the Whistleblower Protection Officer or other individual handling the report.

Protection of reporter's identity and confidentiality

Subject to any legal requirements, on receiving a report under this policy, Kutta Mulla Gorinna Special Assistance School will only share a reporter's identity as a whistleblower or information likely to identify a reporter if:

- the reporter consents
- the report is made to ASIC, AHPRA or the Australian Federal Police; or
- the concern is raised with a lawyer for the purpose of obtaining legal advice or representation.

Any disclosures of a reporter's identity or information likely to reveal a reporter's identity will be made on a strictly confidential basis.

Kutta Mulla Gorinna Special Assistance School will protect the confidentiality of a reporter by:

- reducing the risk that the reporter will be identified from the information contained in the disclosure by:
 - redacting all personal information or reference to the identity of the reporter witnessing an event;

 - contacting the reporter to help identify certain aspects of the disclosure that could inadvertently identify them; and

 - reminding all individuals involved in the handling and investigation of a matter are regularly reminded of their confidentiality requirements, including that in the circumstances that apply under the Whistleblower Protection Regime, the unauthorised disclosure of an individual's identity may be a criminal offence.

Protection of files and records

In order to protect the reporter and any individual named or implicated in a report, Kutta Mulla Gorinna Special Assistance School will ensure that all files and records created from an investigation arising from a report made under this policy will be stored safely and securely and will be appropriately protected having regard to whether the records are stored in electronic form or in paper copy.

This will be achieved by:

- If the files are electronic – ensuring that the system is adequately protected by password protection or encryption, and the files and records are stored on secure data storage systems and accessible only by authorised individuals involved with the investigation or with sufficient security clearance.
- If the files are hard copy – ensuring that the files are stored in locked storage and that the keys to the storage are kept safely and securely in a location only known to authorised individuals involved with the investigation or with sufficient security clearance.

Protections under the Corporations Act

In addition to the above internal mechanisms to protect a reporter, the Corporations Act contains special protections to Eligible Whistleblowers if the conditions in conditions 1, 2 and 3 in the section of this policy headed "When the protections apply" are met.

These special protections are:

- the Eligible Whistleblower is immune from any civil, criminal or administrative legal action (including disciplinary action) for making the disclosure

 - ASIC
 - AHPRA
 - the Australian Federal Police (AFP); or
 - a legal practitioner for the purpose of obtaining legal advice or representation in relation to the disclosure.

However, these protections do not grant immunity for any misconduct that an Eligible Whistleblower has engaged in that is revealed in their disclosure.

Kutta Mulla Gorinna Special Assistance School will ensure that Eligible Whistleblowers are protected against Detriment by:

- undertaking an assessment of the risk of Detriment against the Eligible Whistleblower and other persons (e.g. other personnel who may be suspected to have made a disclosure) as soon as possible after receiving the disclosure;

- where possible, engaging with the Eligible Whistleblower to assist in providing or identifying strategies to minimise and manage time or performance impacts, or other challenges resulting from the disclosure or the investigation, such as by providing other modifications for the Eligible Whistleblower to continue to work e.g. reassignment to another role, changes to their role or the way they perform their duties;
- ensuring Kutta Mulla Gorinna Special Assistance School's management is aware of their responsibilities to maintain the confidentiality of a report, address the risks of isolation or harassment, manage conflicts and ensure fairness when managing the performance of, or taking other management action relating to, an Eligible Whistleblower.

- informing the Eligible Whistleblower that they can lodge a complaint with Kutta Mulla Gorinna Special Assistance School via the Whistleblower Protection Officer if they have suffered Detriment in accordance with Kutta Mulla Gorinna Special Assistance School 's complaints policy. Any complaint will be taken seriously and dealt with by Kutta Mulla Gorinna Special Assistance School in accordance with that policy.

- the concern is reported to ASIC, AHPRA or the Australian Federal Police (AFP); or
- the disclosure is made to a legal practitioner for the purpose of obtaining legal advice or representation in relation to the operation of the Whistleblower Protection Regime.

It is illegal for a person to identify a disclosure or disclose information that is likely to lead to the identification of the Eligible Whistleblower, outside these exemptions.

An Eligible Whistleblower may lodge a complaint with Kutta Mulla Gorinna Special Assistance School about a breach of confidentiality in accordance with Kutta Mulla Gorinna Special Assistance School's Complaints Policy. An eligible Whistleblower may also lodge a complaint with a regulator, such as ASIC, AHPRA or the ATO if their confidentiality is not protected.

An Eligible Whistleblower can seek compensation and other remedies through the courts if:

- they suffer loss, damage or injury because of a disclosure; and
- Kutta Mulla Gorinna Special Assistance School failed to take reasonable precautions and failed to exercise due diligence to prevent Detrimental conduct.
